new primary location: _____ (subject to approval by holder of airfield)

Mode of intended operation commercial flights non-commercial flights

If the aircraft is used for commercial flights, the applicable legal minimum requirements must be adhered to. The aircraft will be deleted from the Swiss Aircraft Registry whenever the legal requirements are no longer adhered to.

Issuance of new certificates (on-board documents):

The on-board documents are generally issued to the current holder upon compliance with the legal requirements and when a guarantee of liability claims towards third parties on the ground has been established.

Note:

In the event of a change of holder, the insurance certificate, the radio communication licence and, if applicable, the maintenance programme (for EASA aircraft) as well as the 406 MHz ELT registration (elt@bazl.admin.ch) must be modified. The aircraft may be put into operation thereafter.

The following documents must be enclosed with this modification application:

- Blue documents-binder, containing all on-board documents
- For corporate entities: extract from the commercial register
- For foreigners: residence permit B or C
- If applicable, the insurance certificate
