

ATPL(H) skill test

EASA Annex I Subpart F

FOCA approves/ designates examiner(s) to conduct the ATPL skill test.

The application for the FOCA permission has to be sent to FOCA at least 2 weeks before the expected date of the skill test and include the following documents:

- Copy of page 1 + 2 of the FOCA form 61.532 completely filled out
- Copy of EASA simulator certificate if applicable (not required for Swiss simulators)
- Copy of at least the last 2 double pages of the pilots logbook confirming the required flight experience
- Copy of the pilots logbook confirming the required flight experience in FFS/FNPT (if applicable)
- Copy of PICUS Log (if applicable)
- Copy of the valid EASA medical certificate (not applicable for holders of Swiss medical certificate)
- Copy of the EASA examiner certificate and licence (not required for Swiss examiners)

Foreign examiners have to follow the procedure published by EASA in “Examiner Differences Document”

The ATPL skill test may be combined with a TR/MPA initial skill test or proficiency check (LPC).

After ATPL skill test, the examiner sends the following documents to FOCA:

- Complete original skill test FOCA 61.530 with all pages
- Copy of examiner entry in logbook (double page)

Please send the documents to:

FOCA, Federal Office of Civil Aviation
Safety Division – Flight Operations
Flight Personnel
3003 Bern